The S&P U.S. Preferred Stock Index is designed to serve the investment community's need for an investable benchmark representing the U.S. preferred stock market. Preferred stocks are a class of capital stock that pays dividends at a specified rate and has a preference over common stock in the payment of dividends and the liquidation of assets. The index includes all preferred stocks issued by corporations and trading on major U.S. exchanges, subject to criteria relating to minimum size, liquidity and time to maturity.
